POLAR®
LISTEN TO YOUR BODY

Polar helps you get under the skin of your training and understand what your body is telling you. They attribute it to a combination of expertise in sports, physiology and electronics, coupled with a deep understanding of customer needs. It's no surprise that Polar has been leading the way in technological innovations and heart rate monitors since 1977. Polar caters to all levels of fitness by offering a comprehensive product range, along with essential support and advice to help improve an athlete's sports performance and more.
